The Spirit of Africa is waiting to embrace you ...

Welcome to the Spirit of Africa

This 21 day journey to South Africa, Namibia, Botswana, and Zimbabwe is being offered to only 6 people who feel the calling. If you feel this calling and do join us, you're in for a treat.

Our journey begins many weeks or months before we actually meet up in South Africa, as we prepare and get organised to go.

We meet up, in person,
in Cape Town, South Africa
on Wednesday 27th August 2025

As we weave our way across South Africa and into Namibia, Botswana, and Zimbabwe the Magic of Africa will weave her deep magic into our hearts and souls. Our 21 day journey will take us on a special journey of exploration, discovery, and transformation as we step into magical, positively challenging, and exciting experiences. This journey will be a journey of stepping in and meeting and kindling, or re-kindling our connection to Spirit, both internally and externally.

During the evenings we will have time to relax and put our feet up, share our experiences and stories of the day and share some amazing meals together. Some of the days are given over for free time to explore, shop, and meet the locals and give you time to connect with yourself for a time if you choose to.

The itinerary may change due to sudden physical, emotional, mental, or spiritual intervention, or just because it needs to ...

I have been investigating the realms of spirituality for over 30 years and have a broad and extensive knowledge and understanding of spiritual matters. Living in South Africa for 2 years, and visiting many times, has given me a deep understanding, appreciation, and deep respect and love for South Africa and its people. Whilst being there, I have made many wonderful connections and had many powerful and deep experiences.

Now it is time for me to share these connections and experiences with you.

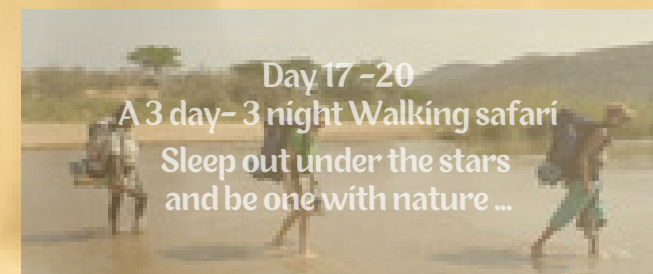

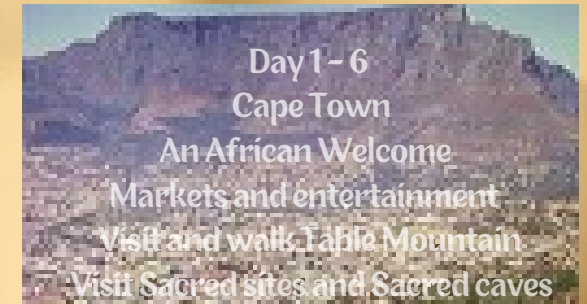

Each day will be filled with something very magical, empowering and memorable. As we journey together a magical bonding will unfold as we explore, discover, and travel together through our various emotions and feelings, joys, and challenges.

I trust this journey will be full of new and empowering insights, gifts, experiences, and opportunities for you to grow and expand and it gives you an experience that you can carry and hold in your heart, mind, and soul forever.

I look forward to your presence on this Spirit of Africa journey and look forward to sharing all that unfolds for you and the group as we travel from place to place and let the magic weave its way into our hearts and souls ...

In Gratitude and Joyous Creation, Adrian
